Who we are

VSVSV is a veteran-led private education venture. We prepare candidates for the NCC A, B and C certificate syllabus, the SSB interview and Agniveer written examinations, and we support the instructors and schools that run NCC units. We are independent: we prepare you, and the certificate and every selection decision stay with the official bodies.

How our content is made

VSVSV is a private, AI-driven learning platform with no classroom teachers. Lessons, practice and explanations are generated with AI from open and publicly available educational and official government sources, organised around the published NCC A, B and C, SSB and Agniveer syllabi, and curated by a veteran-led team.

How we work

- Learn in your language. NCC lessons are in English and Hindi, with thirteen more Indian languages machine-translated and clearly labelled. The NCC certificate examination itself is conducted in English or Hindi.
- Private and independent. We are not the NCC, the Armed Forces or a recruiter, and we never act for a learner or a school with them.
- No outcome promises. We describe the service. We never guarantee a result, a pass, a selection or any recruitment benefit.
- Price and access period shown up front. Every course lists its cost and how long access lasts before you pay: 30 months for an A or B certificate course, 18 for a C certificate course and 12 for an Agniveer course. SSB and instructor courses have no end date. Renew any time for half the price.

What the classroom gives you

- Self-paced lessons on a phone or a laptop, with no live classes and no fixed timetable.
- Learning checks after lessons, practice and final assessments, and your attempt history.
- Progress tracking across the course, and downloadable field manuals where available.
- A completion record from VSVSV when you pass a course's required final assessment — never an official NCC certificate. Optional practice assessments give you a result report instead.
- A language selector that serves a lesson in your language wherever a translation exists.

Try before you pay

- 17 free lessons, no account needed — vsvsv.in/preview
- A free Agniveer foundation course — the Common Defence Foundation, for all three services.
- A free NCC entrance / screening mock — a timed practice test for students applying for limited NCC seats. Practice only; it grants no admission.
